MAIN STAGE

💬 PANEL

DISCUSSION

15:45 Human Risk Factor

Firewalls, AI and zero trust - but the biggest security risk remains: the human factor. Between phishing fails, password post-its and clicks on "open now!", our panel guests discuss how companies can use the human factor not just as a weak point, but as a security booster. A talk with plenty of humor, hard truths and surprisingly practical solutions. Only for strong nerves and weak passwords!
